SOUTH PARK GLASS TO GIVE MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT

A program arranged by the Augustana conservatory of music will be presented tomorrow evening at the South Park Presbyterian church under the auspices of the young men's class taught by E. C. Fisher, superintendent of the public schools. This is one of the series of programs which the class is giving the third Thursday of every month at the church, charging no admission and taking no collection. The entire venture being supported by the young men for the entertainment and upbuilding of the community.

It was at first planned to have the Genesee Banquet, which appeared in concert tomorrow evening at the church but in that this was the only opportunity the class would have to present the Augustana musicians as a number on their series of entertainments, arrangements were made with the Genesee organization to have them come here at the May number of the course. The class is also making efforts to have the Wennerburg chorus, of Augustana, give a concert as a special number before the close of the school year at the college.

No program has been announced for tomorrow evening's concert but it is understood that both student and faculty members of the Augustana conservatory will present numbers. All are invited to attend.
